K; We have passed the word to the Soviets that you are not planning any pre-emptive moves, and that we have your assurances. We have certain responsibilities if the Israeli's cave.

S: Yes.

K; We are in facilitating communications with the Egyptians to Cairo. The Soviets have talked to Moscow on some of our lines.

S: What about the Syrians.

K: We have no means of communicating with them. The Soviets will have to do that. I may send someone to the Syrian Embassy.

S: Good. I have passed on the other message. I am at your disposal.

K: Good. You can be certain you will be informed of all we do.
