

TELCON
Howe/Sec. Kissinger
Oct. 6, 1973
7:51 a. m.

K: When I ask you to do something, it must be done that second. We have asked that two messages go to the Soviet Embassy and they have not gotten there yet.

H: I will look into it.

K: Get these people off their behinds. What conceivable reason not to have them sent there yet.

H: I don't know unless they have to be sanitized.

K: That is a zerox problem as I understand it.

H: I will take care of it.

K: I want them there and in their hands and a report back.

END.