

TELECON
Dobrynin/Kissinger
October 6, 1973
PM (Last Call)

1/6/73
K. He wanted me to...what he supposed that I have said to you. He was a little restless that I said we would wait another 12 hours. Did want to say we'll wait til 9:00. I will have to act without cooperation with you.

D. That is understandable...you have decided.

K. No, we have not yet decided to do it. We had decided to do something. Now we want to wait to see if something else comes about. He asked me to call you and tell you this.

D. It is difficult. Not a plan as to what to do. Any suggestion from you I will appreciate. Especially Moscow...they will appreciate.

K. If I have any ideas I will call you.

D. O'k, goodbye.