MEMORANDUM

To Chotiner. Murray

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

March 10, 1970

Problem with waiting 6 months is that we need to do some effective demolition now - have any other ideas?

DETERMINED TO BE AN ADMINISTRATIVE MARKING

E.O. 12065, Section 6-102

By EMP, date 11-20-80

CONFIDENTIAL

FOR: H. R. HALDEMAN
FROM: Murray Chotiner
SUBJECT: "Operation O'Brien"

I have someone working now to get a list of Larry O'Brien's clients. I will know in a few days if he is able to do it.

3/11/70

If a Senator or Roger Morton makes a public demand for O'Brien to disclose his clients, he will be forewarned, and as a result, any new clients he may be picking up will be routed through another firm.

I think it will be better to wait approximately 6 months and then make the public demand (if the facts warrant it) that he disclose the following:

1. The clients he had and the amount paid by each at the time he took over the Chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee.
2. The names of the new clients and the amount paid by each, and the date of their acquisition.

It is understood that this can change, depending on developments.

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. NOFZIGER

In moving ahead on Operation O'Brien, we should push hard to get demands made that he disclose his clients and the nature of his affiliation with each. We should look for every opportunity to keep the heat on the DNC and O'Brien.
