MEMORANDUM FOR BOB HALDEMAN

NEWSWEEK has a particularly bad article regarding Presidential leadership today. If you are asked, we have underway a letter-writing campaign from as many directions as we can. I have asked Jim Howard to get some of his connections going on it; also Dan Sullivan who works for Charlie McWhorter, and Frederick Dixon who has a little network of his own.

Rose Mary Mazon in the World Bank is helpful; the National Committee is getting its people going on this, and I have called other people in Los Angeles and Chicago.

I think there will be a good outflow of material within the next 24 hours, but because of the nature of relying on these people, I won't be able to give you the exact numbers of letters.
