SPL

MR. PRESIDENT

When I talked with Walter Annenberg he told me that Frank Rizzo had already told him just a few days ago that he would be running as a Democrat for Mayor of Philadelphia -- and again assured him that he would be for you in 1972.

In other words, we did not have to promise any hands off - or assistance of any kind but I suppose he is looking for that in any event.

Ambassador Valter Annenberg tcmw

re Philadelphia

IMPORTANT

"Frank Rizzo - probably the finest Commissioner of Police in the United States. He wants to run for Mayor of Philadelphia. He will win in a walk. He is by all odds the most powerful figure in Philadelphia. He has been serving under Tate, the Democratic Mayor, but my relationship is such that when I ~~talk~~ talked with him about this when I returned from England, he said:" I have the greatest respect for the President and I would never do anything that you would ~~not~~ disapprove of. I may run for the Mayorality and I think I would be better off running as a Democrat but I promise you that I will come out in support of the President in 1972.

Selection of candidate - February 71 -- run Fall of 71

Rizzo is by all odds the most powerful figure in the whole area. He not only has a bearing on Pennsylvania - but on the neighboring states. I regard this as a key ~~situation~~ situation and I want to talk to somebody because I think I could even persuade him to run as a Republican if Hugh Scott and the Republicans would slate him. Spector who is the DA might want to be slated. Rizzo is dedicated to supporting the President and I have a promise from him that he will definitely come out in support of the President for re-election in 1972."

This would be helpful because his influence is felt in Southern Jersey and the state of Delaware.

Over 10% of the people would back him for anything.

Remember I have a promise ~~xxx~~ that regardless of what party he represents he will support the President in 1972."

rmw suggested that we hold this until after September 3rd and see what the score is -- then I will ask just exactly which man will be handling this type of project and have them talk with Water Annenberg about this matter.
