Dear Lester:

It was kind and thoughtful of you to write me from Atlantic City while you were attending the Elk's Convention. My heart attack prevented me from going there and I was very disappointed.

I made my first visit to the Grand Lodge Convention in 1918 -- that was during the war and I attended three consecutive Conventions in that City and a number of them in the years that followed. I still think it is the best City in the United States, outside of San Francisco, for any kind of Convention.

I had a complete report of the proceedings from Brian McKeogh who is very active and on the staff of the National organization, and he told me about the fight on the attempt of the management of the rules to permit the election of other than white people as members of the Order.

I suppose that will come up at every Convention, but I noticed the decision of the Supreme Court which showed that the Elk's Order and other Fraternal organizations would not be hurt by their failure to admit any one other than white people to their membership.

I note what you had to say about the Convention in Miami and I agree with your observations. It was one of the worse Democratic Conventions I ever saw and it cannot help but have a detrimental effect on the Party's success in November.

I hope that you and your wife are enjoying good health and that one of these days our paths will cross.

Sincerely,

James A. Farley

Monday

Rose, sweetie--

Please, when you have time, read this letter to The President.....

If you think it worth bothering him with, send it along, when you can.....

Otherwise, please throq it away....

I know it is too damn long....I ka intended to write just two or three paragraphs, but then ~~kkk~~ got wrapped up..... and presto, two pages!!!!

Rose, honey, you and I surely are close enough and devoted enough by ~~kk~~ now to be frank, candid and no bullshit....I will love you forever regardless of what your HONEST judgement is ---r.e. this ~~kkkk~~ letter or anything else --- because I (1)repect your brain and judgement, and (2) am positive you haven't the instinct to do or say anything with relation to me that isn't honest, for my benefit-- and TRUE.....

That I love (and admire) my lovely redheaded Rose is no secret even to Rita (who loves you, too but being built your way, the love ain't my way).....
