THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 23, 1973

Dear Mrs. Eisenhower:

It was requested that you note and pass along to Bebe Rebozo the following from the February 23 News Summary:

- -- Ohio woman wants Saxbe to apologize to US canine population because of reference to draft dodgers as "dogs." She called it "an insult to an animal which is faithful to its master unto death," adding "many have served well in war," and asked Saxbe to find some other suitable epithet to call "these sniveling creatures who ran away when they were needed."

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bruce A. Kehrli
Staff Secretary

Mrs. Julie Eisenhower
