FGG-11-1 / EHRLICHMAN, JOHN D.

May 23, 1972

The Hon, Barry Goldwater
Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C.

My dear Barry:

Thanks for your patience, your interest, your attention and your friendship. I am truly grateful.

Though this does not preclude my doing other chores in the upcoming campaign, I have agreed to serve as co-chairman with Anna Chennault in her effort to enlist Americans in Asian countries to (1) vote and (2) to contribute to the Presidential campaign.

Rest assured, sir, that I shall exert my best efforts in that and in any other direction which is needed to keep Mr. Nixon as our President.

Cordially,

J. Raymond Bell

The Honorable John Ehrlichman
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear John:

You were simply terrific in Philadelphia. We could not have had a finer finale. After listening to and looking at you I know the ladies went home one thousand strong to work twice as hard. Your personal touches about the President were so interesting.

I appreciate more than I can say your wonderful cooperation in everything I have ever asked.

Thanks for your nice letter. The gratitude should be flowing the other way. Hope you and Jody and Bob had a wonderful tour.

Best to you and my warmest thanks.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Tobin Armstrong

GENERAL FILES

May 10, 1972

Dear Mrs. Armstrong:

John Ehrlichman has asked me to contact you regarding his appearance at the Republican luncheon at the Bellevue Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia on Saturday, May 20.

I would most appreciate your general guidance on this appearance and your assistance in answering the following questions:

1. To whom will he be speaking?
2. How large is the group -- and what is its composition?
3. Could you provide a list of those who will be at the Head Table?
4. How much time should he plan to fill?
5. Will there be a question and answer session?
6. How much press coverage do you anticipate?
7. Who will introduce him?
8. Would it be possible to arrange transportation to and from the airport?
9. In addition, Mr. Ehrlichman would most appreciate having your guidance or recommendations regarding the content of his address.

Your assistance in helping us coordinate this event is most appreciated and I know Mr. Ehrlichman is looking forward to this appearance.

Sincerely yours,

Tod R. Hullin
Executive Assistant to
John D. Ehrlichman
