Dear Mr. President:

It is hard to imagine any privilege which I could cherish more deeply than the opportunity to serve as a trustee of the Richard Nixon Foundation.

I thank you most sincerely, not only for the honor, but for the personal expression of confidence which it reflects. This means more to me than I can readily convey.

Certainly one of the most exciting aspects of this appointment is the project itself. As I see it, the first obligation of the trustees is to see to it that the Richard Nixon Foundation truly reflects the standards and aspirations of its founder. If we do that, then it can be a tremendous instrument for good for generations to come, both practically and symbolically. Please count on me as one who will do everything in his power to make that come about.

Mrs. Moore joins me in sending our continuing good wishes to you and all the Nixon family. As each day goes by, we are increasingly grateful for the leadership and example which you are providing.

Sincerely,

Dick

Dear Mr. Firestone:

The President has asked me to acknowledge your letter of May 29th since my office will be acting as his liaison with the Foundation.

Thank you for the interesting architectural renderings.

In the not too distant future (now that the articles of incorporation are filed) we will be convening a meeting of the Trustees. I imagine that it would be most appropriate to have the meeting in California since most of the Trustees are there. In any event, we will send you an agenda substantially in advance of the meeting and I would appreciate it if you would let me know if you have anything which you would particularly like to have raised at that time.

We are all delighted at your willingness to serve as a Trustee.

Kindest personal regards.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Mr. President:

I am thrilled and honored to be a Trustee of your Foundation and look forward to the challenging opportunity we have before us.

I realize it is a long time before a building program will be undertaken; however,
I heard that you were interested in a modern,
Mexican-American type of architecture. We recently approved a building for the University of Southern California campus which I thought was very attractive. I am enclosing the architect's rendition which I felt you would enjoy seeing. I think the courtyard concept is most attractive. The architect is Edward Durell Stone.

Your many supporters here are every day more pleased with the effort they made on your behalf. With every good wish.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Wright:

Thank you for your letters to the President and to Rose Mary Woods, to which the President has asked me to reply.

Although the Richard Nixon Foundation has been incorporated, the Trustees have not yet held their first meeting. It will be within their jurisdiction to determine the exact location of the proposed library and to select the necessary architects and contractors.

Therefore, I have taken the liberty of forwarding copies of your letters to Mr. Herbert Kalmbach, who is presently the acting Secretary for the corporation and I know that he will bring it to the Trustees' attention at the proper time.

We very much appreciate your interest and continued support and thank you for taking the time to write.

MEMORANDUM

TO: The President

FROM: Pat Hitt

Nixon Foundation

I regret missing the Foundation meeting on September 3 but commitments and work in Washington are such that I must leave California on Labor Day.

However, I want to urge the formation of two Advisory Committees to the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors of the Nixon Foundation -- a National Advisory Committee and a California Advisory Committee. The purpose of the national group is obvious.

In forming a California group also, the following purposes would be served:

1. Continued support and participation of influential and valuable persons who are being "closed out" by the party structure in California. These are people who can make the difference in carrying the state for you in 1972. They must be given an identity as, and a sense of being a part of, your team. (I am referring to persons like Leonard Firestone, outside the Reagan-Reed Power Structure.)
2. Establishment of a strong Nixon base in this state, not tied to or controlled by the Governor.
3. Active participation of people who can provide a substantial and continuing financial base.
4. Since it is your home state, Californians must have a major and distinct support role in addition to the inclusion of several of us on a national level.

In conclusion, I want to emphasize that not only should a California Advisory Committee be named but that its members must be "your" people - first, last and always to as great an extent as possible. I don't want to see persons, who are primarily committed to others, riding your coattails. This Advisory Committee should be used to form a very powerful Nixon vehicle for use before, during, and after 1972 which can deal effectively and speedily with rival forces.

2- ESTABLISHMENT OF A STRONG NIXON BASE IN THIS STATE, NOT TIED TO OR CONTROLLED BY THE GOVERNOR.

3- ACTIVE PARTICIPATION OF PEOPLE WHO CAN PROVIDE A SUBSTANTIAL AND CONTINUING FINANCIAL BASE.

Dear Miss Woods:

Your letter of September 12, 1969 re the President's membership in The State Bar of California came to the attention of the Secretary, Mr. Hayes, as he was preparing to leave the city on business. He asked me to acknowledge your letter and to advise you that it will have attention.

Mr. Hayes also asked me to tell you that the President's membership in The State Bar of California is coupled with his right to practice law in California and thus removal of the President's name from the membership roll of the State Bar would remove his name also from the roll of persons admitted to the Bar of California. Presumably, the President does not wish that. In any event, the President's membership in the Bar of California will not be disturbed, and Mr. Hayes will write to you soon concerning this matter.

Very truly yours,

Hobe Lewis would like to have an appointment with the President at some convenient time. He wants to discuss the possibility of their publishing company - Funk and Wagnalls - publishing any book that the President might consider having written -- or writing.

Before anyone else would be given the assignment, he feels he owes it to his own position to ask for an appointment for a few minutes.

The President does want to try to use that full dress shirt with the collar attached. The one that the Royal Formal Wear people sent is the wrong size, but is not now in condition to be returned, so I'll keep it and will be glad to pay them for it, if they wish.

I think we ought to order two of these shirts in size 16-35 for the President, and this should be done quickly so he'll have one for the Diplomatic Reception Friday.

The idea of the President's papers keeps coming up and now we also have a suggestion from Hobe Lewis, which the President has agreed to, to have someone start preparing a book with excerpts from speeches throughout his entire career, up to the Inaugural Address. Reader's Digest would like to publish such a book through their publishing company, Funk & Wagnalls.

In order to pull these things out of the files and have them properly marked and checked, we really need someone who knows those files. Otherwise, it will take considerable time for me or one of us to go and help pull them out, and, of course, we will have to be sure to keep track of everything we pull.

Has any serious thought been given to having Loie Gaunt do this type of job? If so, I think it would be timely for one of you to call her to work out the details and let us know if she is coming back. If not, I think we should work with one of the people here to in some manner get this project under way.

Hobe Lewis also suggests that a book be prepared with excerpts from speeches throughout your whole career. He feels that you have said a great number of exceptionally beautiful things and that the best things should be taken from the different speeches -- and then bring it up to the Inaugural Address - have that be the cut-off for the book.

Reader's Digest would like to publish that -- they have a publishing company - Funk and Wagnalls (they published Arthur Krock's recent book).

TO: Col. J. D. Hughes

FROM: Rose Mary Woods

I thought you would be very interested in the attached telephone message which Marje gave me, and since I know how fond you are of Bill Reisinger I thought you would want to call the Peace Corps right away and tell them that you think he should probably be the Director!

Needless to say, after hearing of his treatment of you and Betty, he picked the wrong person to use as a reference.

TO: The President
FROM: Rose Mary Woods

Your brother Don made a suggestion today that I felt you might like to have:

He said when you were in Orange County for the welcome home affair in January you were given a large painting of your mother as well as a relatively small copy of it. He suggested that since he felt it was an excellent painting of her you might put the small one in one of your private rooms - a den or small office - as he felt it would be most inspirational for you.

Pres. agrees - would also like to consider using the big one - if Mrs. W. thinks there's a suitable place for it - maybe on the 2nd floor in the mansion

There has been some talk about whether the girls should sell their stock.

The President would like you to look into this.

Here is the bill for the portrait from Philippe
Halsman -- it also includes the copyright.

Rose does not see how we can ask the Transition Committee to pay for something that is made out to the U. S. Government. It is her suggestion that the bill be made out to Richard Nixon.

-- we can find no record of a tray being received from Donovan and Seaman's -- and Julie has no record of a gift being received.

There has been some confusion because of the move, etc. but I believe they tried very carefully to list everything. Maybe the store could put a tracer on the package.

I am however having them double check.

My dear Mr. President:

I read today of the formation of your "Foundation". If you think I would be of any assistance, I would be more than delighted to participate.

I heard from Bill Rogers before he left on his trip. We here, at Fox, are all very proud of your selection of him, although we miss him at our Board of Directors Meetings.

Last week I was at the Studio, in Hollywood, and on my office wall there is a magnificent picture of the two of us taken during Ike's first term -- or perhaps, even before his election. In any event, you have your right arm around my shoulder and we are both smiling (at something). Incidentally, we both look considerably younger.

If the "Foundation" matter presents any problem, please forget it.

Again, sincere congratulations on the cool and deliberate manner in which you are conducting the extremely difficult problems you have inherited.

Affectionate regards,

Darryl

MEMORANDUM

TO: Dwight Chapin
FROM: Rose Mary Woods

John Alexander just called to say that he and Bob Guthrie need 15 minutes (at very most 30) with the President before finalizing a trust fund they are setting up. (The President knows about the trust fund -- but they want to be sure it is the way he would like to have it done, etc.)

Alexander has to be down here all day Sunday on the task force on Tax Reform -- and also on Monday morning. Guthrie could come down if we could work out the time on Monday afternoon.

Also Alexander wanted me to tell the President he thought last night's press conference was excellent -- his best yet.

(Please let me know - or advise John Alexander direct - 212 HA 2-6767).

MEMORANDUM

TO: Harry Dent
FROM: Rose Mary Woods
RE: Vermont

Consuelo Bailey called several days ago to tell me how upset she is that everything in Vermont is given to Senator Aiken.

Her complaint is that he has controlled everything in Vermont since 1941; that she has been connected with the State Committee since 1926 and, of course, to have Aiken control everything destroys every bit of strength their committee might have. Also she is upset that Aiken gets all of this patronage, etc. because she said it was carried in their papers prior to the convention that Aiken said if Nixon were nominated he would go fishing.

Now the latest problem - the papers have carried a story that Aiken has nominated James Oaks for the vacant spot for U. S. Judge. She claims that Senator Prouty has said Oaks is not qualified and she obviously does not think he is qualified. She also says that Oaks was one of the strongest people in Vermont for Nelson Rockefeller prior to the convention.

Another "beef" about Aiken -- he does not like Governor Davis and Davis is all for the President.

She just wants us to get word to the President et al that any chance to build the Republican Party there is being destroyed by giving everything to Aiken.

RE: Robert Lee Oschman

Mr. Oschman sent cash money through the mail during the campaign several times which, of course, was turned over to Maury Stans. Each time he requested no acknowledgment.

However, he is now sending $56 to wish RN a happy birthday and "to help pay the debts of the Nixon victory election."

His indication in his letter as to his anonymous contribution total is extremely high if my recollection is correct.

Since he mentioned some kind of a land deal in this letter I think you should, as Counsel to the President-Elect, return this cash gift expressing appreciation for his help in the campaign but advising him that the President-Elect does not accept personal contributions.

Happy Birthday

Gentlemen:

I am writing to advise that the President has decided, reluctantly, that since he is unable to devote attention to the more than one hundred organizations and associations with which he was affiliated prior to the Election last fall, he will be unable to continue his membership with such organizations during his tenure of office. Consequently, it would be greatly appreciated if you will cancel his membership in the American Bar Association for the present and remove his name from your rolls.

With appreciation for your attention to this request and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Member:

I write to express to you this personal word of thanks for your support of the Association and its efforts to carry out an increasingly responsible role of leadership in professional and public affairs.

The law obviously is involved deeply in the problems arising out of the social turbulence of our time. Your Association is endeavoring to respond to the consequent dislocations to the full extent of its resources. As a lawyer, you know of the obligations we face to improve the functioning of and confidence in the law and its institutions, to preserve in our country the indispensable elements of a lawful society dedicated to justice and due process. I hope you share my gratification that the Association is not neglecting these challenges but is moving to meet them with skill and courage.

Our services in both the professional and public spheres have enlarged in the last year. The important reevaluations of the canons of ethics and of disciplinary enforcement are nearing completion. Lawyers now have available through the ABA more and better continuing education materials to help them in their practice. Our legislative effort is increasingly effective, buttressed by a membership now in excess of 137,000. Our studies to increase the availability of legal services, to extend Lawyer Referral agencies, to test the feasibility of legal services insurance and generally to improve the administration of justice, all are in the interest of the practicing lawyer and the public.

And in the public services area the Association is recognizing its responsibilities in such programs as crime prevention and control; minimum standards of criminal justice; housing and urban development law; electoral reform; automobile accident reparations procedures within the framework of the judicial process; study of the Federal Trade Commission; and many others.

These merely are examples of the Association's attention to the pressing concerns of the profession and of the nation. The bar will be judged by its ability to respond to them, and our performance will be of great importance to every member of the profession as well as to the country. That is why I want you to know that the Association is grateful for your continuing interest and loyalty.

Sincerely,

William T. Gossett

This past year has been one of the most exciting and fulfilling years in the history of the American Bar Association and 1969-70 promises even greater challenges and rewards for the profession. Whether you're a member of long standing or have recently joined the ABA, your dues are providing for a more substantial program than ever before.

The Association is meeting the needs of our diverse society as never before. This response is being met through expanding services in both the professional and public service areas. The Association is nearing completion on the reevaluation of the Canons of Ethics and disciplinary enforcement. Add to that the services of National Institutes being presented in cities across the nation -- plus invaluable publications, group insurance, and a host of other services -- and you have a package of unmatched benefits.

I know you'll want to join the other approximately 140,000 dedicated lawyers who are members of the Association in continuing to make these accomplishments possible, so if you haven't already mailed your dues for the current year please do so at your earliest convenience. Your Association and your profession need and appreciate your continuing support.

Sincerely,

J. H. Gordon
