Too late to help.*

Mr. Robert McCune
Nixon-Lodge Headquarters
Box 7398
Washington 4, D. C.

Dear Bob:

A problem concerning material for the campaign for Vice President Nixon has arisen here in our area inasmuch as volunteers for Nixon and Lodge have not yet started operating and are in no position to furnish us with materials and our own treasury is sadly depleted due to the fact that we have a local campaign coupled with the expenses incurred with the August 17 visit.

If at all possible, we should like to receive from your headquarters bumper strips, Nixon-Lodge literature and buttons.

Our Treasurer has already expended more than $1,000 for such literature which goes quite well in this area. It is imperative that we have more inasmuch as Senator Kennedy will visit Greensboro briefly Saturday of this week and the Democrats are going to make quite a splash.

If you can help us out in any way it will be deeply appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Jordan J. Frassinetti, Chairman
Guilford County Republican
Executive Committee

War Memorial Auditorium Coliseum

Here in the "Magic Circle of the Piedmont", live more than 1-½ million people within an hour's drive. Here, too, is the dream of every exhibitor, convention planner and showman . . . 10 years in the planning and 4 million dollars in the building . . . the magnificent Greensboro War Memorial Auditorium/Coliseum.

The three-in-one structure is designed to provide facilities for entertainment with a maximum of spectator comfort, a minimum of distraction and complete safety for the patron.

Just minutes from downtown Greensboro, this breathtaking structure dominates its surroundings.

And it's yours, completely equipped in every detail, ready for your next event.

But this architectural triumph is more than a building. It's the dream-come-true of a busy, active, energetic people. People who are interested in all that America has to offer. People who will be your biggest, most enthusiastic audience.

Paved parking areas for over 5,000 vehicles are adjacent to the structure.

All this, plus fine accommodations at first class hotels and motels. Excellent dining facilities. Plenty to do and see.

So, Get to Greensboro, soon. Bring your most elaborate show, convention, trade exhibit or arena event. Complete facilities, planned by experts and staffed by courteous, efficient personnel, are waiting here for you.

Auditorium Air conditioned throughout, the Auditorium provides ideal facilities for musical shows, plays, concerts, operas and other theatrical attractions, plus conventions, sales meetings and religious gatherings.

The Auditorium is designed to seat 2,439 persons. Comfortable seating and excellent sight lines are combined with a superb sound system and brilliant stage lighting. Backstage are spacious dressing rooms for principals and choruses; large areas are provided for wardrobes, equipment and properties.

On the lower level are additional rest rooms, showers, lounge rooms and mechanical equipment rooms.

Entering the Auditorium, the patron goes through a foyer into a softly-lighted lobby and proceeds to the orchestra level or to the mezzanine where rest rooms, lounges and concession spaces are located. The lower level houses additional rest rooms and concession spaces.

Town Hall The Town Hall connects the Auditorium and Coliseum and serves three major functions:

1. Assembly hall uses with seating for 300 and a small stage. Small groups will find it ideal for local productions, sales meetings, conventions and closed-circuit TV meetings.
2. Exhibit uses with 63' x 63' space for floor shows, sales displays, art exhibits, etc. Three large meeting rooms adjoin this area and may be opened or closed off from the main portion as desired. Kitchen facilities are available for catering services.
3. Administrative uses with offices and ticket sales facilities located in this center unit. Space is provided for secretaries, a ticket office and two private offices.

Coliseum The Coliseum is designed with fixed seats for 6,720 persons plus portable seats which increase its capacity to over 10,000 for certain events. This unit was planned for use in presenting basketball games, circuses, ice shows, ice hockey, rodeos, etc., as well as large exhibits and conventions. Complete ice rink facilities are included. It is intended also to handle large political conventions, mass religious activities and similar events. Full concession facilities are included for serving either large or small groups. Locations have been provided for open exhibit space, meeting areas, storage, dressing rooms and other special purposes. Large doors provide access to the Coliseum floor area for big equipment such as farm machinery, automotive equipment, trucks, etc. In the basement area are mechanical equipment rooms, locker and shower rooms, a maintenance shop, two large staging areas and a large storage area.
