Dear Bob:

Our conference with Dick Nixon at the Ambassador was both interesting and from our view point I hope, successful. Dick was most cooperative and gave an indication of understanding our problem. We sincerely believe that the course which he has indicated will be followed during the next two or three weeks, will secure for him additional voting support and certainly be helpful in our University relations.

Please extend to Mr. Hafner our regards and appreciation for the few minutes of his valuable time which gave us the information which we were seeking.

Cordially yours,

Philip L. Boyd

Dear Mr. Brown:

Dick Nixon's campaign schedule calls for his traveling almost constantly these days, and in his absence, his office has referred your letter to me. I regret this acknowledgment has been delayed.

I do want to thank you for writing as you have, and to assure you Dick Nixon will appreciate your thoughtfulness in bringing the subject matter to our attention. This will certainly be referred to the proper people for handling and appropriate follow-through.

Many thanks for your interest and support, and kind regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Black:

I am writing you because once again we need your help for the Republican Party. Cap Weinberger, who as you know is now State Chairman, and I firmly believe that the election can be won if we make certain that the Republicans get to the polls and vote. This, as you will understand, is a mechanical job which takes a great deal of manpower. In 1956 we were successful in persuading many large businesses to permit some of their younger men to take time off to work for the Party. It is even more important that we get this type of cooperation in 1962.

If we could arrange to free between 25 and 50 men in the northern part of the State for approximately six weeks before the election, Cap and I are convinced that it would have an appreciable effect on the Republican vote. We realize that many businesses are sensitive on this score inasmuch as they will be accused of favoring the Republicans. We have no objection to extending similar privileges to the Democrats. Quite frankly, they would not use them as efficiently, nor would the added manpower do them as much good as it would us.

In setting up a program of this type it is essential to get started on the right foot. We would like you to issue an invitation to between ten to twenty selected top executives in San Francisco. Obviously we would want to consult with you and would rely on your judgment as to who should be invited. If we can get them together I am certain that Cap and I can convince them of the importance of what we are proposing and of the impact that it will have in November.

Mr. James B. Black

I plan to be out of town until Thursday, September 6th. If, however, you are willing to discuss this matter further with Cap and me, I would appreciate it if your Secretary would call my office and set up an appointment so we can see you as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Stu:

When Brack Hale returned to the office yesterday, he brought back your card and told me about the work you had done on the car being used for Dick Nixon.

This is just a quick note to let you know such gestures are deeply appreciated, Stu. Many, many thanks.

Hope all is going well with you. These are busy days, but I hope our paths will be crossing before too long. Meantime, our sincere thanks for your help.

Kind regards and best wishes.

attached memo from Dick Neary to Dinner Committee

cc: Maury Stans

To use all the outside politicoes as suggested in the attached would, of course, be entirely contrary to our policy of running our own campaign in California, and should not be done.

The idea of messages from leaders of various segments of the community is excellent, as long as they are Californians. This should be followed up as to whether or not it is mechanically feasible. However, it should not be done by diverting the activity of campaign personnel. We will have to assume everyone at the Dinner is already for us, and our campaign efforts must be directed toward the "leaning" votes.

MEMO TO: Dinner Committee
FROM: Dick Neary

September 5, 1962

It's been suggested that our dinner program could be enlivened during the eating period if use were made of the large projection screen which, later in the program, will be used to carry the closed circuit TV exchange between the Los Angeles and San Francisco dinners. Telegrams, perhaps accompanied by pix of senders, could be flashed on the screen -- messages of tribute to Eisenhower primarily, with a paragraph endorsing Nixon's campaign added.

We would need at least fifty of these to be effective during the period reserved for eating. Duplicates could be shown in Los Angeles during the same period.

The following is a list of political personalities and other categories from which it is hoped these messages can be obtained:

U. S. SENATORS

- | | |

| Fong - Hawaii | Saltonstall - Massachusetts |
| Dirksen - Illinois | Hruska - Nebraska |
| Capehart - Indiana | Javits - New York |

| Margaret Chase Smith - Maine | Goldwater - Arizona |

U. S. REPRESENTATIVES

| Halleck - Indiana | Frances Bolton - Ohio |

GOVERNORS Rockefeller, N. Y.; Hatfield, Oregon; Smiley, Idaho.
GOVERNATORIAL CANDIDATE George Romney, Michigan
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN Frayn, Washington
Charles Taft, Ohio, and John Roosevelt, N. Y., private citizens
Prominent leaders from following categories:

| Agriculture - 2 | Business - 5 | Medicine - 2 |
| Labor - 1 | Cinema - 5 | Religion - 3 (1 each from major faiths) |

Any additions or substitutions for these names and categories will be welcome. It has been suggested that Bob Haldeman can readily furnish names in these categories from whom messages can be received.

Dear Mr. Brown:

Dick Nixon has given me a copy of your recent letter to him indicating that a group of you "Old Salts and Leathernecks" have decided to join with us in Dick's campaign.

You listed several attributes which you wanted to see in a man of your choice, and I am taking the liberty of sending you herewith some material which you will find of interest.

On Anti-Communism - a folder which reprints two articles Dick wrote for the Los Angeles Times on this subject.

On Reorganization - a copy of Dick's speech given before the Commonwealth Club in San Francisco, outlining his plan for reorganizing the California state government.

On Veterans' affairs - a press release on the formation of our Statewide Veterans Committee.

On Union Control - a statement Dick made in answer to Pat Brown's remarks at the recent California Labor Federation Convention.

Mr. Brown

Dick mentioned he would like very much to get a group of the old SCAT people together, and I wonder if this is a project you would be able to take on? If you do plan to form a group, I know Dick would like to have the chance to see all of you again. I am asking Dan Waters of our office to get in touch with you regarding your organizational plan so that we can give you any help you might need.

Thanks very much for your support and assistance.

Best regards.

Dear Bob:

Last week I received a call from a Mr. Sullivan of the California State Veterans News requesting advertising and an accompanying article in behalf of John Busterud. He offered to send me basic facts and a copy of the publication.

I thought you'd be interested in the editorial appearing in the May issue, which was the sample copy he sent me - Thermofax copy attached. While I am sure this tells only one side of the story, I am forwarding it for whatever action you consider appropriate.

Through the mail Friday I received in an envelope from the Department of Motor Vehicles a leaflet (Thermofax copy also enclosed) calling for highway safety with a statement by Governor Brown. Whether it is a coincidence or not, it is most appropriate for the Department of Motor Vehicles to send such a publication out.

Sincerely,

Information Every Veteran Should Know

MEMORIAL DAY EDITION

MAY 1961

IT'S VOTING TIME

Candidate For Governor

What has Governor Brown who is seeking another term as Governor done for the veterans of the State of California? This is a very important question as it affects you and your dependents.

Legislatively, the Brown program has seen these accomplishments:

A liberalized educational assistance program for veterans and their dependents.

An updating and liberalization of tax exemptions for veterans with some major parts still to be voted on by the people.

Inclusion of disabled veterans in the Cal-Vet Farm & Home Life Insurance coverage.

Assurance that Cal-Vet benefits will go to California Veterans of Japanese ancestry who were removed from the state during the 1942 evacuation and went into service from another state.

On the administrative side, the Brown administration has carried on the "People Orientation" policy with considerable savings to both taxpayer and veteran, as well as expanded benefit to veterans.

Success was particularly notable in the Farm and Home Purchases Division, which underwent an immediate streamlining when Governor Brown took office in 1959, enabling this self-supporting function to maintain its low interest rate service to veterans. It also enabled Farm and Home Purchase offices to eliminate an irksome three year backlog of 18,000 applications for loans and to maintain all applications on a current basis.

A major stride was made within Farm and Home in the field of insurance when negotiations to provide additional insurance benefits under the Home Protection Plan were completed. Settlements were broadened so that in addition to paying the loan balance, the veteran's widow received an amount equal to 20 per cent of the loan balance in cash. In addition, the benefits would be doubled in the event of accidental death before age 70.

A new fire and hazard insurance contract was entered into with a single company which provides broadest coverage at rates lower than any other company or group of companies which offer on lesser coverage. (This coverage was said to be unobtainable!) The savings to veterans has amounted to a million dollars per year, and the coverage on their homes is both broader and more realistic.

GOVERNOR BROWN

In all, the Farm and Home Purchase division finds itself both efficient and solvent, with 160 million dollars worth of bonds still unsold.

The Governor's office, in the meantime, has thrown its full weight behind the 1960 and 1962 Cal-Vet Bond Issues as a means of continuing this worthwhile project.

At the Veterans Home, waiting time for entry has been cut from three years to ten months, while adoption of 18 recommendations for better operation of the home has resulted in greater efficiency, economic savings and comfort for the veteran members.

A modern, new medical treatment center and hospital addition has been added to the Home to furnish up-to-date medical service for the veteran members.

Governor Brown also approved construction of a new fireproof concrete grandstand for the Veterans Home baseball park. This replaces an old and unsafe structure that has been used in years past.

In January, 1960, a Claims and Rights Service was instituted to represent California veterans in claims primarily before the Federal Government. Immediate success of the effort brought installation of offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Resulting savings to the State amount to approximately $400,000 per year.

EDITORIAL

We want our readers to know that we contacted the Nixon for Governor headquarters here in San Francisco to obtain a story by Mr. Nixon voicing his personal opinion as to his ideas in reference to Veterans affairs in California and if he was elected Governor, what new legislation, if any, would be sponsored that would be beneficial to the veterans of California.

We advised the Nixon for Governor headquarters in San Francisco that we had received a story from Governor Brown and Mr. Skell, Republican running against Mr. Nixon in the primary.

We advised Nixon's headquarters that we wanted to be impartial politically in our editorial policy and there would be no charge for the space allotted to Mr. Nixon to tell his story.

All this was discussed with the Nixon for Governor headquarters in San Francisco some three weeks before the deadline. They were advised that the deadline for this copy would be May 4th.

They in turn advised us that this matter would be taken up with the Nixon & Jorgenson (public relations firm) in Los Angeles, who was handling Mr. Nixon's campaign.

We wrote an Airmail Special Delivery letter to the Los Angeles headquarters stating we would like to run a story by Mr. Nixon on Veterans affairs in California.

Not only did we fail to receive a story from the Los Angeles headquarters, but we are still waiting for even an acknowledgment of our letter.

We again contacted the SAN FRANCISCO HEADQUARTERS advising them that we have not as yet received Mr. Nixon's story. They informed us that they would check with the main Nixon headquarters in Los Angeles and see that we received the story by May 4th, the deadline.

May 4th arrived and still no story. We did receive a phone call Friday, May 4th, from someone indicating he was associated with the Los Angeles headquarters and assured us that if we would delay the deadline to Monday, May 7th, Mr. Nixon's story would be in our office Monday morning.

At this present writing we still have not received Mr. Nixon's story.

We certainly do not blame Mr. Nixon for this negligence. It is very possible he was not advised we were seeking a story from him as to his stand on California Veterans affairs. Or was he? We just can't believe that Mr. Nixon, a Veteran himself, and a very active member in Veterans' organization affairs, felt that the 2,300,000 Veterans in California were not important enough to him in being elected or defeated. WE WILL SEE!

Voices of the Airways

Kansas City, Mo. (Special) — Long recognized by the Veterans of Foreign Wars as a man of many talents, Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief Byron Gentry has once again broadened the scope of his total accomplishments. An April 6, "Voices of the Airways" a book of poetry by Byron Gentry, was published by the Naylor Company of San Antonio, Texas.

Presently serving as prosecuting attorney for the City of Pasadena, Calif., and a former star of the National Football League, Gentry has written poetry as a hobby for many years. So impressed were the publishers, they had this to say about Gentry's works: "Unafraid to express his deep self, daring to attack problems most modern writers shun, the author brings freshness and vitality to the American poet that has long been lacking."

Develop new and graphic means to educate (through mass media) the general public in such matters as proper driving on freeways - dangers of lane changing, proper use of rear-view mirrors and other defensive driving techniques.

Military Cooperation

Expand promotion of cooperation with military bases (Air Force, Army, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, National Guard, Navy) in their off-base safety programs and activities.

ACTION EDUCATION

Driver Training Expansion

Support the expansion and improvement of driver training programs in California's high schools with a view to training 100% of the eligible students, and promote the concept of driver training education as it relates to the general public. Consider making driver training mandatory before issuing drivers' licenses.

Teacher Training

Require all candidates for standard teaching credential in elementary education to complete a course in safety education. Require secondary schools to employ fully credentialed teachers with adequate instruction in safety education, driver education and driver training.

ACTION ENGINEERING

Uniformity of Signs, Signals, Pavement Markings —State, County and City

Encourage officials of state, county and city government to adopt uniform recommendations regarding signs, signals and pavement markings as recommended in the Uniform Vehicle Code.

Communication on Freeways

Experiment with telephone, radio or other means of communication on freeways for use of drivers having vehicular or other difficulties in transit.

ACTION LAWS and ORDINANCES

*Uniform Vehicle Code

Enact legislation bringing all sections of the California Vehicle Code up to the standards set by the National Committee on Uniform Traffic Laws and Ordinances as stated in the Uniform Vehicle Code — and, through Governor Edmund G. Brown and the Conference leadership, urge President John F. Kennedy to call a conference of all the governors of the 50 states for the purpose of stimulating the adoption of the Uniform Code.

*Seat Belts

Promote legislation making it compulsory to install seat belts in all private motor vehicles.

*Drivers' Licenses—Qualifications

Enact legislation providing that no driver shall be licensed before the age of 18 unless he has completed, when such is available, a full program of driver education and driver training which meets the nationally recommended minimums. Make provisions for more thorough examination of driver license applicants, including the use of psycho-physical tests, etc. Increase license fees, if necessary, to provide these additional facilities. Employ more actual driving demonstrations in license testing.

*Accident Reporting

Make mandatory the reporting to the DMV of all accidents (presently only convictions, injury accidents, and property damage accidents of over $100 are reported), in the hope that problem drivers can be helped before injury or death occurs.

* indicates legislation required

ACTION MOTOR VEHICLE ADMINISTRATION

Budget

Study current needs of the Department of Motor Vehicles in all phases of its operation, with emphasis on increasing facilities for reporting, driver improvement programming, etc., and raise department budget to meet existing demands.

Research Projects

Carry out additional research in: (1) single vehicle accidents; (2) psycho-physical problems of drivers; (3) driver vision; (4) driver attitudes; (5) vehicle design. Encourage county and state medical associations to aid in such studies.

Driver's Record

Available to Courts

Make available to traffic court judges all information regarding violator's prior driving record, including ALL accidents as well as violations. Information to be used in fixing sentence only after a finding of "guilty."

ACTION POLICE TRAFFIC SUPERVISION

Manpower and Training

Strengthen police agencies in manpower and through increasing of salaries to recommended levels. Upgrade, through administrative action and citizen support, all areas of police training for traffic law enforcement, with particular emphasis on command training in police traffic supervision.

Aircraft for Traffic Control

Continue and expand use of aircraft for enforcement and direction of traffic as another means of accident prevention.

ACTION ORGANIZED CITIZEN SUPPORT

Safety Councils

Give increased emphasis to the need for whole-hearted support in establishing new citizen support safety councils, both city and county-wide, and in strengthening those now in existence. Officials, business and industrial leaders should exert every effort to establish safety councils in all areas not presently served by such a council, and to see that these citizen organizations are financed and equipped to properly carry out their functions in matters of public education and traffic accident prevention.

ACTION TRAFFIC ACCIDENT RECORDS

Uniform Reporting

Require all enforcement agencies to adopt a uniform method of accident reporting as outlined in the Annual Inventory of Traffic Safety Activities. Encourage use of accident records in development of sound accident prevention measures.

ACTION TRAFFIC COURTS

American Bar Assn.

Traffic Court Program

Continue support of the Annual Western Regional Court Conferences in cooperation with the American Bar Association's Traffic Court Program. Increase the number of conferences throughout the state toward the end that more court officials receive training in the nature of the traffic problem, accident prevention, accident investigation, scientific enforcement, uniform rules of sentencing, uniform bail schedules and the teaching of traffic safety from the bench.

Juveniles in Traffic Court

Re-evaluate the juvenile justice code and the problems of the juvenile traffic law violator, with particular consideration being given to trying juvenile traffic violators in the traffic court as recommended by the American Bar Association.

Sybil Brand, whom you may know, is the wife of Harry Brand, Public Relations Director at Warner Brothers and a top P.R. political adviser in the past.

Sybil has been active in previous Nixon campaigns and wants to help again in this one. She has had some discussions with RN and is, I imagine, working with Sue Taurog and Florence Wellborn on their projects.

I understand, however, that she has a special interest in hospital registration activities and I think it would be wise to set up a special project with her in charge to carry this on. It could be expanded to include absentee ballot coverage in the hospitals as well as current registration.

Will you contact Mrs. Brand and see if she would like to do this?

Dear Mr. Bucalo:

Dick Nixon has asked me to express his thanks for your letter of May 26th.

As I am sure you will realize, firm policy rulings must be made and followed, in fairness to all concerned. In this case, the policy is that there will be no involvement in out-of-state campaigns, which of course precludes Dick calling or writing Mr. Crowley, as you have requested.

We feel certain you will understand what we believe to be the only fair and just method of handling this and many other similar requests.

With kind regards.

Dear Mr. Brown (or Dear Hal):

I just wanted you to know how very much I appreciate your making the tri-vision board at Beverly and La Cienega available to us.

It just happens that this location is one which I pass every day on my way to the office, and also one which Tricia and Julia pass on their way to school. Dear Leone:

We certainly enjoyed the lovely luncheon you served on Sunday, and it was a real treat to see your lavish layout high atop Nob Hill.

You asked that I send you a sample of the basic brochure we have been using, and it is enclosed.

You were going to send us a suggested list of approximately 100 top business people to whom we should send Dick's statements regarding business and free enterprise. You were also going to send on your thoughts as to content of the Nixon statement or column on this subject.

We checked on the letter from Hagerty and find that he did write Dick recently, but his letter had been answered, although it appears possible that your meeting with him might well have occurred between the time his letter was written and the answer received. There was not much of a delay, however.

Again, thank you for your most generous hospitality, and I look forward to seeing you soon.

RN wants him included in the broad P. R. group, and also individually consulted from time to time regarding tone, content, etc. of the campaign.

Will you please call him? Tell him RN suggested you call to establish contact, and perhaps get together to review any thoughts he might have on the campaign at this point; also, that you would like to keep in touch as we go along.

Dear Ralph:

Mr. Chester B. Neiswender, a substantial land owner in the Fresno - Fallbrook area, has been anxious to talk to Dick about a farm program. Some months ago he was unsuccessful in trying to reach him and there was, unfortunately, a further time lag because of a lost letter he apparently wrote. These circumstances add up to the fact Mr. Neiswender has become a bit impatient and irritated at his inability to reach Dick or this office, which is understandable.

In view of this, it would seem important, and I am sure it would be helpful in the situation, if you were to contact Mr. Neiswender rather than us, get his story and try to secure his active participation in and support of the "Farmers for Nixon" program.

In talking with him, you can simply state the facts insofar as the mix-up in his contact with the office is concerned. It is really unfortunate and regrettable, but perhaps it would be easier for you to bridge this gap. He will doubtless need soothing, but his active participation and support are certainly desirable and hoped for. He apparently owns some of the land in San Joaquin Valley which is operated by Russ Giffen.

Mr. Neiswender's address is Stage Coach Ranch, 404 South Stagecoach Lane, Fallbrook, California - telephone: Fallbrook, RA 8-7943. Let me know the result of your contact, and many thanks.

Dear Mr. Bougeno:

Your letter of February 14th has just been received. Certainly I can understand your disappointment at our reply to your invitation for Mr. Nixon to address the Republican Club of El Segundo in April. We don't like to turn down these invitations any more than good and loyal supporters such as yourself like to receive them. Unhappily, facts make it necessary.

The one saving thought is that something can be worked out in the future, and this I indicated in my letter to you of February 8th. Dick Nixon will be covering all areas of the state and my suggestion was that we hold your invitation in abeyance for the time being. We will certainly let you know when your area is going to be scheduled for a visit in the hope your organization can be included in the programming.

Many thanks again for writing us. I trust you will understand the problems confronting us in trying to handle the multitude of invitations coming in and arranging a schedule that pleases everyone. It is an almost impossible task, but we do try to work out best possible arrangements.

To: Bob Haldeman Date: 2/21/62

From: Carol Arth

Subject: Assemblyman - JACK BEAVER

Distribution: Mildred Younger, Files

Last Monday in Redlands during my discussions with Bill Moore, Publisher of the REDLANDS DAILY FACTS, Bill said that he had talked briefly with R.N. at the C.N.P.A. Convention in Coronado about Jack Beaver.

Bill recommended to R.N. that the campaign, in whatever manner practicable, avail itself of Jack's experience regarding California affairs during his four terms in the Legislature. R.N. asked if Bill meant that Jack should become a member of the professional staff and Bill said 'no'.

He does feel that Jack should be called in for a Conference for the purpose of giving us the benefit of his analysis of Brown's Legislative weaknesses and possibly issues. Bill said further he was aware that there might be some feeling against Jack here in Los Angeles County because of certain votes Jack cast and certain attitudes he may have taken.

However, Bill felt he could give us a good picture of "the Out County" situation.

I know personally that Jack supports R.N. and I feel that a talk with him would be wise.

We are extremely sorry that we have delayed in getting back to you, but the Schedule Committee was making every attempt to juggle already-firm dates in order that Mr. Nixon could meet with your organization on the dates you specified. Unfortunately, however, because of too many schedule conflicts, it will not be possible for him to visit your club during the foreseeable future.

We feel sure you understand the many complex problems involved, both in time and geography, in trying to coordinate Mr. Nixon's schedule for the next few months, and are extremely sorry our answer must be as it is.

Again, many thanks for your thoughtfulness in writing.

Dear Mr. Bougeno:

Many thanks for your recent letter inviting Dick Nixon to address an evening meeting of the El Segundo Republican Club in April. Your request was immediately referred to the Schedule Committee, and every attempt made to clear a date in April when he could speak at your meeting. Unfortunately, however, because of schedule conflicts, it is not possible for him to accept your kind invitation in the foreseeable future. We feel certain that you fully understand the many problems involved, both in time and geography, in setting up his speaking schedule for the next few months, and are extremely sorry our answer must be as it is.

However, we are keeping your invitation in our pending file with the understanding that we will contact you further when Dick Nixon plans to be in El Segundo. Certainly the Republican Club of El Segundo will be included in any plans we make for speaking appearances in your area.

Again we very much appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing.

Dear Phil:

This letter will briefly recap our discussion the other evening regarding the formation of a key Public Relations Advisory Group.

It is my understanding that you have agreed to head up such a group, and that you will prepare a list of suggested members for our mutual consideration prior to making any direct overtures.

It is agreed that this group will not be publicized in any way, and will be asked to provide advice and counsel on a wide range of campaign matters relating to all phases of Public Relations, including advertising, promotion, campaign materials, and strategy.

I have discussed this with Milt Esberg and he has agreed to serve on the Committee, and was very pleased that you were going to bring it together.

I think this should be a small group limited to top professionals in the various areas of Public Relations.

Since Leone Baxter has agreed to counsel with the Campaign Committee, I would suggest that she be asked to join your group. You, Leone and Milt, plus one or two others should probably do it, at the outset at least.

I look forward to hearing from you. Best regards.

Dear Mr. Blackett:

Please forgive this long delay in replying to your letter of October 31st to Mr. Richard Nixon. The letter did have to follow a rather devious route before it reached him, and then he held up replying until proper procedures were set up for handling out of state donations.

Your offer to contribute $1,000 to the California campaign is very much appreciated by Mr. Nixon. As you know from past experience, your presumption that money is harder to get during the primary is certainly correct.

I certainly agree with you that water will be the major issue in the campaign and it will be very helpful to get Mr. Kreiger's views and especially his analysis of what Brown's pitch will be.

Dick is going to set up a Task Force on the water issue and I think the first step would be to ask for Mr. Kreiger's suggestions as to who, in addition to himself, he feels might be valuable to have on this Task Force. Would you like to ask him for this information, or would you like me to get in touch with him directly? I will be glad to handle it however you think best.

Dear Phil:

First, let me correct my home address for you, since the Robert Haldeman to whom you addressed your letter is another individual who also lives in the Pacific Palisades and who is at present, as you can imagine, receiving a great deal of my mail.

My home address is 550 Spoleto Drive, Santa Monica, Calif.

We did, indeed, enjoy an unusual evening at the Jonathan Club and I certainly appreciated John's making possible our chatting again after many years. I certainly understand your reasoning regarding the timing of Bill Knowland's help and am very much aware of the situation regarding the "Right to Work" issue.

We, of course, recognize some potential problems with the forthcoming book, as you outline, but I think it will also have some counterbalancing advantages in the California Campaign. Some of these would include the reaffirmation of Dick's position and long record of leadership in the fight against Communism; the detailed clarification of the 1952 Fund Case -- which should help to counteract some of the current phony smears --; and a number of details regarding the 1960 Campaign which are pertinent in the forthcoming California election.

In any event, the commitments and contracts on this book were made prior to Dick's declaration for Governor and, in view of this and the amount of money involved, it would seem at this point to be unwise to hold it up.

Mr. Philip L. Boyd
December 6, 1961

As you suggest, however, Dick will be developing a series of articles and statements on the State of California's growth opportunities during the '60's which will outline his interest and programs on the issues you itemized.

I certainly understand your position in regard to Knight but I hope that it will not preclude our drawing on you for some advice and counsel behind the scenes.

I completely agree with you that Brown will increase in strength between now and the election and that we must operate on the basis of leaving no stone unturned.

Thank you very much for your thoughtfulness in writing. I hope we will have an opportunity in the months ahead to discuss some of these things in detail. I would especially like to ask you for some help on the educational program when we get into some of the details in that area.

November 30, 1961

Mr. Robert J. Haldeman

Pacific Palisades, California

Dear Bob:

We certainly enjoyed an unusual evening together as John Vaughn's guests at the Jonathan Club. There were high lights and low levels but on the whole a most memorable occasion. I particularly enjoyed our brief conversations including the few minutes we had together in the lounge late in the evening.

It occurred to me this morning as I drove home and considered our remarks that I should like to expand a little in better explanation of hastily expressed opinions. My thought that Bill Knowland could be more helpful in the primary rather than in the general election campaign was based on the fact that four years ago he was identified actively with the "Right to Work" issue on the ballot. This brought him into disrepute not only with labor but with quite a few of the liberal elements of the Democratic Party. As Dick Nixon will find it necessary to pick up the independent vote and some of the more liberal Democrats before he can expect to be elected, I then assume that Bill Knowland would be a burden in the latter part of the two campaigns.

As to the primary effort, if the two can be separated, Knowland does appeal to most of the conservative Republicans which of course, is more than a majority of the sentiment to select the nominee.

Also, I wanted you to know I am really a little concerned about the book to be released in serial form and later bound covers on the subject of the six Crises. Each of these will emphasize Dick Nixon's interest in affairs other than in California. It will be well and enthusiastically received nationally but in my opinion, not of real value to him in his campaign to become Governor of California. It also can be used by his opponent Pat Brown to point out his complete divorce from California developments during the past few years.

If on the other hand, Dick could prepare another book or series of articles on such a subject as "California, the Growth State during the 60's" he then could show his interest and constructive program on such subjects as agriculture, water and flood control, education including the Master Plan as an economy and efficiency development, more industry, more jobs rather than more relief and more unemployment insurance, an aggressive attack on highway congestion, etc.

It is necessary for me to repeat to you that I have a feeling of obligation to Knight based on my appreciation of the appointment as a member of the Board of Regents which prevents me from openly supporting any opposing candidate. You, however, have discovered my real sentiment which I hope I will be able to express openly either through the withdrawal of Knight or his defeat in the primary. This of course, is a confidential statement to you as a friend.

You have my best wishes for a successful effort. It will be a difficult task to elect Dick Nixon Governor and a more difficult one for him to get along with a Democratic Legislature. It can be done, however, but you must anticipate that Brown will become stronger between now and November and that no stone can be left unturned to acquire the necessary bipartisan support.

Cordially yours,

Philip L. Boyd

Dear Richard:

This letter is to advise you that I am the Bi-Partisan author of Honorable Chief Justice Earl Warren's first bid for Governor of California. We felt because of the threat of Communism in America it would give latitude to the free people's of the World by putting his name on both Democrat and Republican ballots. As you remember he was Attorney General at the time.

I wrote the petition and authorized all the delegates of the A. F. of L. and C. I. O. to endorse Chief Justice Earl Warren at their State Convention which was held in San Francisco in 1941, which procedure was followed.

I studied at Columbia University in 1951 under President Eisenhower and would like to meet you personally. I wish to discuss with you the possibility of getting a private law practice. I would like to meet the Honorable Chief Justice Earl Warren, and I believe my cause is just.

Would you be able to see me a few minutes when you come to Phoenix, Arizona.

Notwithstanding the fact you have numerous political friends out of friendship to Chief Justice Earl Warren, wouldn't you like to meet a bi-partisan friend who admires your vigorous stand in fighting Communism on your South American trip under President Eisenhower.

Mr. Richard M. Nixon

Sir:

Spokane has a young, extremely attractive, and talented girl in the field of constitutional government. She needs an opportunity to serve under leadership which only you could provide.

As you can see from the enclosed data sheet, she is brilliantly capable in many fields, not the least of which are secretarial duties and familiarity with the Russian language.

During the years of 1959 and 1960, the Republican County Chairman and myself (vice-chairman) had many occasions to call on Miss Becker for assistance. On each occasion, the task was completed to perfection. As a public speaker, she is considered a spellbinder which is made possible by "speaking from convictions". She has now graduated from the University of Washington, and we feel that further exposure to our cause would benefit all concerned.

Spokane is rather a small community, and consequently, the opportunities for political growth are somewhat limited. We therefore urge you to give some consideration to this young woman. We may easily furnish a long list of prominent Republican figures in the state of Washington who feel as we do.

With every hope for your continued success, we remain,

Sincerely,

Becker

Dear Mrs. Hufford:

In view of the increasingly heavy demands of his legal and political commitments, Mr. Nixon has asked that I reply to your interesting and thoughtful letter concerning Miss Carolyn Becker's qualifications to assist his Campaign for Governor of California.

While it is not contemplated that the full structure of staff and volunteer personnel for this effort will be completed until early in 1962, the budget for the Campaign will prevent our utilizing the services of individuals from outside the state at any level of this organization.

You should know, however, that Mr. Nixon was greatly impressed by Miss Becker's outstanding background and qualifications, and that he deeply appreciates your sincere expression of interest.

Very truly yours,

JAP BURCH called for RN and talked with rmw:

He said: "There are some things out here that are very alarming and I wonder if he really realizes what has taken place in recent weeks or months. It is almost shocking. I am at this time really afraid that Dick won't get anyplace if this thing continues. It is from the ground level. I am not much out of La Habra - what I hear is not good at all. For instance, we have this man Shell who came out to the ladies federation - at the Country Club and had quite a large crowd. He had spoken at that time before 360 groups of people. I was not at that meeting. I know several who were for Nixon who were at the meeting and they are not for Nixon now. I think RN has to pay more attention to this threat -- it is not anything to be brushed off as not being serious. "

"I do know that this one place made quite an effect. I am telling you now that if it is as effective in other places as it is now I think RN is in trouble."

rmw asked him if the people gave any reason for being for Shell or switching from Nixon to Shell.

His answer was: "I talked to quite a few Nixon supporters who are going to support Shell. Walter Knott who I know quite well is against him now. I will do anything I can to help. The people are hungry for someone to come out and tell them what to do. If RN doesn't soon get going I think that thousands will be committed before he gets started."

(I asked Mr. Burch to try to find out what the people really thought Shell had done -- find out why they were switching, etc. and that we would call him back. I ~~said~~ said Haldeman would do so -- but I suppose I can. La Habra -- OWen 1-3225.

Hon. Richard M. Nixon,
525 West 6th.
Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Mr. Nixon:

Enclosed is a letter that may interest you.

The main thing about it is----WHERE did they get my name and address?

I have been a Party worker for about twenty years and the only possible place I can think of that they may have gotten my name all correct is the National Committee in Washington.

When they published "Straight from the Shoulder" they used to send their mailing list from this town for me to keep up-to-date.

And if the National Committee has given Knight their mailing list, they must be double-crossing you.

Anyway here it is for what it is worth.

Yours with all best wishes.

Dear Mrs. Barns:

The office of Governor is the greatest public trust in California. It will require in the next administration every ounce of energy and vitality the Governor can muster. It will demand dedicated efforts to solving the many problems existing in California and you may be certain that I shall devote my entire time and strength toward good government for our beloved State today and every day.

If you know any Democrats who wish to vote for me in the Primary election on June 5, 1962, please advise them that they must register as a Republican (or re-register from Democrat or any other Party affiliation to that of Republican) prior to April 12, 1962, which is the closing date for registration in the Primary election. The important reason for this is because cross-filing has now been abolished in California and my name will only appear on the Republican ballot.

We have our general headquarters located at 3335 Wilshire Boulevard (corner of Wilshire & Catalina) and we most cordially invite you to visit us and become acquainted. Our telephone number is: DUnkirk 8-3321.

Please accept my gratitude for your confidence and good will.

Sincerely yours,

Goodwin J. Knight
